- Supporting the development of effective links with the local community, including business and industry, in order to extend the subject, enhance teaching and develop wider understanding.

Main responsibilities and duties

1 Planning & Setting expectations.

With the support of school SLT:

- Set high expectations and targets for teaching, learning and achievement in the subject.
- Develop and implement policies and practices for the subject that supports these expectations.
- Establish and implement improvement plans for the subject.
- Ensure the development of shared schemes of work and teaching resources for the subject.

- Establish staff and resource needs for the subject, advising the school SLT, and deploying staff and resources effectively within the department.
- Manage a departmental budget, if required
- Ensure that accommodation is used to create an effective and stimulating environment for the teaching and learning of the subject.
- Support the school SLT in ensuring that there is a safe and healthy working and learning environment in which risks are properly assessed.
- Work with the SEN department to ensure that individual education plans are used to set subject specific targets and match work to students' needs.

2 Teaching & Managing student learning

- With the school SLT, evaluate teaching of the subject in the school, using this analysis to:
  - Identify effective practice and areas for improvement
  - Take action to improve further the quality of teaching.

In particular ensuring the following:

- curriculum coverage, continuity and progression for all students;
- constructive working relationships between staff and students;
- that lessons are based on learning objectives that are clearly communicated to students;
- that teachers are able to select from a range of appropriate teaching and learning methods to meet the needs of the subject and of different students;
- the effective and efficient management and organisation of learning resources;
- the effective development of students' skills and understanding in literacy, numeracy, ICT, study skills and Citizenship.
- that staff are well equipped in their subject knowledge to deliver high quality lessons across the Key Stages in the subject.

3 Assessment & reporting

- Analyse and use subject data, research and inspection evidence to inform policy and practice, expectations, targets and teaching methods.
- Support the school SLT in the development of systems for assessing, recording and reporting achievement in the subject, and for using the information to recognise and raise achievement further.
- With the school SLT, set subject targets for student achievement, for monitoring achievement against these targets and for using this data to identify and support students who are underachieving.

Professional Development

- Appraise staff as required in accordance with the Trust's Performance Management policy.
- Lead professional development in the subject through example and support and coordinate the provision of high-quality professional development, including by methods such as coaching and drawing on other sources of expertise.
- Support the school SLT in ensuring that subject-based trainees and Early Career Teachers are appropriately trained, monitored, supported and assessed in relation to standards for the award of QTS, the Career Entry Profile and standards for induction.

General and School Responsibilities

- Be familiar with Safeguarding requirements in protecting the welfare of children, and young people. The Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
- Contribute to and support the Trust's Values, Ethos and Vision
- Participate in training and other learning activities as required
- Participate in Performance Management and development as required by the Trust's policies and procedures
- Participate actively and flexibly in a range of school activities
- Be aware that all employees have a general duty in law to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions
- Understand and be committed to the Health and Safety Policy and the safety priorities and be aware of their contribution to such priorities
- Be aware of and comply with the health and safety legislation and other requirements that are relevant to the post
- Demonstrate commitment and enthusiasm to promote the principle of equality and diversity in employment and service deliver
- Be familiar with and promote the Equality and Diversity Policy

The principal responsibilities and tasks as set out above are not intended to be exhaustive. The need for flexibility, accountability and team working is required. The post-holder is expected to carry out any other related duties that are within the employee's skills and abilities, commensurate with the post's grade and whenever reasonably instructed.

The job description will be reviewed regularly to ensure that it relates to the role being performed and to incorporate reasonable changes that have occurred over time or are being proposed. This review will be carried out in consultation with the post-holder before any changes are implemented.
